ABSTRACT:

The concept and the efficiency of audit are well known and established in the society. It is all pervasive. Audit plays a very significant role in the prevention of errors and frauds thereby keeping vigilance in the society. Yet the audit is to play a proactive role in the society. Auditing activism is the most wanted solution. It must be Omni-present.

Abstract Report: The Title Accurately Said The Study was About.

INTRODUCTION:

The term Audit comes from the Latin verb 'Audire' means to here. Therefore the word Auditor means 'the hearer'. In the early thirteenth century the audit was a process or the act of hearing by the auditor of the accounts and its explanations. And the auditor used to give certificate after hearing the accounts from the parties. In common parlance auditing means auditing of financial transactions.

CONCLUSION:

Audit should provide what the society needs. The audit should not be supposed to stay at the administrative buildings. It should go to the kitchen. It should not be confined to financial areas but should enter into the non-financial areas also. The concept of audit has much and many more to contribute to the betterment of the society. Now-a-days, audit is not a MICRO concept but it is very well a MACRO concept. Audit has to work in real sense of the term "Promoting Efficiency and Preventing Wastage".

The time has come for auditing to be more Intelligent and Analytical Exercise in every sphere of human intervention. It may be said that the society needs Auditing Activism at least in the form of [Social Activism of Audit] Protection of Social Interest.
