ABSTRACT:

It is a fact that religion can play a multi-dimensional role in maintaining a peaceful society. Swami Vivekananda viewed that nothing is stronger resource to change the humanity than religion. Indian culture gloriously witnessed a peaceful living of multi-races. Today the atmosphere of disharmony needs the teachings of Ramakrishna and Vivekananda who taught constantly all religions are nothing but lead to the same goal, so conversion is nothing but waste of time .

Abstract Report: The Title Accurately Said The Study was About.

INTRODUCTION:

It is a fact that, it is only religion which can constitute a society more peaceful as well as harmful. It is religion which can make mankind more kind as well as more aggressive. It is religion which teaches the art of saving as well as killing of lives. Thus, religion can lead carries a healthy as well as a destructive future of a nation.

Introduction Report: This Article Include Full Introduction, Methods, Results & Introduction Section.

OVERVIEW:

- Religions of the world are mutually complementary, not contradictory
- There is no need to change one's own religion for another
- The ideal approach is to accept and assimilate the best elements of other religions while remaining steadfast in one's own religion

Overview Report: Figures are Imported to Provide Explanation for Background Information. Conclusion of This Paper Clearly Supported Results.

CONCLUSION:

India is “a sovereign socialist secular democratic republic” country proclaimed on Jan 26, 1950.<sup>32</sup> It contains perhaps the largest and most detailed constitution in the world, and it is for the purposes of securing justice, liberty, and equality for all Indians and to promote fraternity among them.<sup>33</sup> According to the census of 2011, the population of India is 1,210,193,422.<sup>34</sup> There are 14 (subsequently 18) languages are recognized as official in the Indian Constitution,<sup>35</sup> however, there are multi-sub languages. India is, thus, one of the most multi-linguistically, ethnically, and religiously diverse country, where mutual settlement is not possible except the teachings of Ramakrishna and Vivekananda.

Conclusion Report: The Text is Rounded off with a Conclusion that Discusses the Implication of The Findings & Ideas Discussed & Their Impact on Future Research Direction.
