ABSTRACT

Mangala Sutta is customarily chanted for blessings on auspicious. Besides, these thirty-eight blessings are ethical and spiritual in nature, providing a step-by-step training on the journey of life. It contains Buddha's advice and guidance for the novice of life, and ultimately leads one to liberation from suffering. According to Buddha, Mangala has two meanings: 1. To remove all evil deeds, evil speech and evil thoughts from within us. 2. To accumulate all good deeds, good speech and good thoughts from within us.
