ABSTRACT

Swami Vivekananda (1863-1902), the ideal speaker for Hinduism is known globally for his spiritual wisdom of Hindu religion. Among the modern Indian religion reformers, Vivekananda argued for equality of men and women. Swami Vivekananda is the first monk to uphold and do work for freedom and equality of women and realizing the importance of women for the society as well as the nation. There is no chance of the welfare of the world unless the condition of women is improved.
