Dr. Maitreyini G. Gadigeppagoudar

ABSTRACT:

The TITLE matches with the contents of the paper Women empowerment itself says, to give official authority or legal power to women. Every human has equal authority and rights in this world. Violence against women in India is an issue rooted in society's norms and economic dependence. It can be viewed in this article that women struggle and resistance, gender discrimination in working place, decline in political participation of women and their challenges. Why we should empower women, is to empower women through Self Help Groups.

INTRODUCTION:

Author introduced the topic neatly and clearly The Oxford dictionary defines empowerment as to make someone stronger and more confident, especially in controlling their life and claiming their rights. Basically women empowerment refers to the creation of an environment where women can make independent decisions on their personal development as well as shine as equals in society. Women empowerment is today of the main topics that is discussed throughout the world. Thus it is a globally concerned topic.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text To conclude I would like to say that women are one of the pillar of society and she acts as mother, daughter, wife, sister. It would be difficult to imagine the society without her presence. Now days, she has become part of process in nation building and also she is getting good status and respect in society, gradually, she is getting knowledge of her rights and opportunity. But in my opinion. She should get her complaints/problems to be solved with early response and Honourable courts and Government should give preference to solve her legal suits through special courts and court sessions.

REFERENCES:

RELEVANCE:

The paper is properly organized and demands appreciation. I think the paper will satisfy the interest of the readers.
