REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

Concise Prologue Of Position Of Scheduled Castes In Post Vedic Period

Prof. (Dr.) Kamal Jeet Singh¹ and Dr. Promil Diwan²

ABSTRACT:

The TITLE matches with the contents of the paper India has a long history of caste based society. Caste is the building blocks of our society. Human being plays a pivotal role in the overall progress of a country. A caste system is a social system in which one's social position is given for a life. In caste societies, therefore, all individuals must remain at the social level of their birth throughout life. Prior to modern times, caste system was found throughout the world. In Europe, for example Jews were frequently treated as separate caste, forced to live in restricted neighborhoods and barred from inter marrying etc.

INTRODUCTION:

Author introduced the topic neatly and clearly All men are said to be born equal No one is superior or inferior all are brothers (bhrataraha). Equality of all human beings irrespective of race, religion, sex, nationality and place of birth has been accepted as a basic human right by all progressive India has a long history of caste ridden society, which is a product of social evolution. In Hindu society, the caste system was a dominant social institution and it still has the most pervasive influence in Hindu life and behavior.

METHODOLOGY:

Author has not mentioned any specific methodology. This study was descriptive in nature. Must add methodology in your article. Methodology used to per research topic.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text Therefore, it can be concluded that the position of Shudra were pitiable in post Vedic era.. The social mobility was restricted, likewise, Brahmins were considered to be the superior caste and all the priests and teaching belonged to this caste making teaching and prothia their main profession. Second to it was Kshatriyas, they were warriors and Kings. Third was Vaisyas, they were merchants and traders. Lastly Shudras, they were servants, presently known as Scheduled Castes. Caste factor amongst the Hindu was also related to their socio-economic status, their marriages, profession and living too. Caste became an integral part of the Hindu society.
