Coping Behaviours In The Wives Of Alcoholic Spouses – A Study

Sr. Niranjana Anthonisamy<sup>1</sup> and Dr. J. Godwin Premsingh<sup>2</sup>

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated Alcoholism stands as the world's third risk factor for disease burden and has become the very important problem of global concern. It is clear that the problematic consumption of alcohol affects millions of families. The constant exposures to the negative environment and experiences because of the alcoholic spouses, the wives are compelled to be pessimistic in their attitude towards life.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation Alcoholism thrives in shadows, secrets and silence. Reactions to alcoholism range from venomous gossip to sighs of utter hopelessness. Alcoholism is a broad term for problems with alcohol and generally used to mean compulsive and uncontrolled consumption of alcoholic beverages detrimental to their own health, personal relationship and social standing (Townsend.C..M., 2007). Alcoholism stands as the world's third risk factor for disease burden and has become the very important problem of global concern.

METHODOLOGY:

Author has not mentioned any specific methodology. This study was descriptive in nature. Must add methodology in your article. Methodology used to per research topic.

PRESENTATION OF RESULTS:

The amount of data presented was sufficient and appropriate. Tables, graphs, or figures were used judiciously and agree with the text In conclusion, the data presented add to the growing evidence that alcoholism can have serious consequences on families, perhaps as important as the impact of alcoholism on the alcoholic dependant individual. An observation made in Indian families is that the wives are the victim in all dimensions of health to the alcoholic nature of their husbands. Avoidance resulting in inadequate communication with her husband, economic instability
