REVIEW OF THE ARTICLE

A Study On Social Intelligence Of High School Students

Y. Sophia

ABSTRACT:

The problem statement was clear and well articulated The human capacity to understand what does happening in the world and responding to that understands in a personality and socially effective manner. The successful diplomat, salesman and minister must be socially intelligent, and in many other occupations one's success will depend as much on social sense as on formal training. Intelligence is the aggregate or global capacity of the individual to act purposefully, to think rationally and to deal effectively, with his environment Intelligence is probably the most clearly defined and most accurately measured of all the enduring attributes of the human being.

INTRODUCTION:

The introduction provides a good, generalized background of the topic that quickly gives the reader an appreciation Intelligence is the ability to learn a matter of the extent to which he is educable the more readily and extensively he is able to learn. It is an inherited capacity of an individual which is manifested through his ability to adopt and to reconstruct the factors of his environment in accordance with his group. Most psychologists accept the idea that learning capacity is an essential aspect of intelligence. There are instances of pupils who do excellent work in regular school subjects, but who have great difficulty in one or more of special fields like art and mechanics.
